New Business

Issue a State of Emergency conditions declaration due to the predicted winter weather forecast

Tim Sartin, EMA Director, addressed the Commission and stated the National Weather Service predicts us getting at least two inches of snow, maybe up to four inches of snow, tonight going into tomorrow morning. We will be getting ice as well. Whatever we get, will probably stay with us through the weekend.

Chairman Clemons stated so your saying, snow first then ice?

Mr. Sartin stated, snow, ice, snow and then it may rain after that.

Commissioner Watson made a motion to issue a State of Emergency conditions declaration due to the predicted winter weather forecast. Commissioner Marchman seconded. The motion passed on a unanimous voice vote.

Consider closing the Courthouse and all County Facilities on January 10, 2025, due to the threat of winter storm conditions, including ice, sleet, snow and extend closing if necessary

Commissioner Watson made a motion to approve closing the Courthouse and all County Facilities on January 10, 2025, due to the threat of winter storm conditions, including ice, sleet, snow and extend closing if necessary.
